Vienna, Auguſt 3. The Marquis de Prie is now ſaid to be deſigned for Ambaſſador from the Emperor to the Court of France. Letters from Adrianople of the 18th of July, N. S. adviſe, that a Review being made of the Grand Vizier's Army at its Entrance into the Iſthmus, it was found to conſiſt of 14794 Horſe and 59200 Foot; that there was a great Mortality among their Horſes and Cattle; that the Venetian and Turkiſh Fleets being in Sight of one another near Andros, they expected to hear very ſoon of an Engagement; that on the 1ſt a great Fire at Conſtantinople had conſumed 10000 Houſes, being a fourth Part of that City; that on the 6th an Aga arrived there with Orders from the Grand Vizier to the Caimacan Paſhaw to releaſe the Venetian Priſoners who were in the Seven Towers, as alſo the Bailo, and to give them Liberty to go by Sea to Venice; whereupon they hired a French Veſſel, on which they imbarked with their Goods, and lay off the Dardanels on the 11th in order to take in the Bailo, and to continue their Voyage to Venice.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 10. On the 6th ſailed from hence a Prame carrying 250 Men and 46 Guns; and this Morning was followed by 3 Gallies newly arrived from Norway, in order to join the Daniſh Fleet on the Coaſts of Rugen.

Hambourg, Auguſt 16. Letters from the Daniſh Army adviſe, that on the 11th Inſtant the King of Denmark received an Expreſs from Admiral Rabe, with the News that on 8th that Admiral attacked the Swediſh Fleet, conſiſting of 21 Ships, in the Heighth of Jaſmund, and after a vigorous Engagement obliged the Swedes to retire, who having a fair Wind, arrived the 9th at Carlſcrona, and tho' ſeveral of their Ships were damaged, yet they all eſcaped. Vice-Admiral Jues of the Danes was killed by a Cannon-Shot. The Daniſh Fleet is near Rugen. 'Tis ſaid the King of Denmark has ordered, that the Proviſions for his Army ſhall be ſent for the future by Water, his Majeſty's Fleet being now Maſter of the Sea.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 19. The King of Great Britain having been pleaſed to recall the two Regiments of Britiſh Foot garriſoned in Newport, Brigadier Preſton arrived there on the 7th in order to their ſpeedy Imbarkation for England. Theſe Troops will be replaced by two Battalions of Imperaliſts from Bruges, and the latter by the Regiment of Baden, which Regiment will reach this City to Night, to purſue their March to Morrow to Ghent, and be conveighed by Water the next Day to Bruges. Count Konigſeck, his Imperial Majeſty's Plenipotentiary for regulating the Barrier, returned to this Place Yeſterday Morning from the Court of Great Britain. That Miniſter propoſes to be going in a few Days to Antwerp, in order to renew the Conferences there with the Dutch Deputies, who are expected back from Holland by the 24th Inſtant. M. Peſters, Intendant of the States General in the new Conqueſts, is lately come hither from the Hague, and will ſet out this Evening for Valencienes, where he is to confer with M. Berniere, for adjuſting the great Demands he makes in the Name of the French King on the Chatellany of Tournay, as well for Arrears of Subſidies before that Place was reduced by the Allies, as for what is due ſince upon Account of Fortifications.

The Perſon who ſent a Letter by the Penny-Poſt, dated the 11th Inſtant, to one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and ſubſcribed it
